

Examples of when to use the behaviour ladder:

	Behaviour observed:	Recognition/ Consequences
White	Children are displaying appropriate behaviour	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Moving up the behaviour ladder to a coloured star • Praise (verbal & non-verbal) • Stickers • Certificates • House points • Showing work to SLT & HT for sticker
Yellow Card	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chatting inappropriately • Calling out repeatedly • Bringing inappropriate equipment into school • Lack of respect/ attention to others and school property • Wondering around unnecessarily during lesson • Interfering with others and /or work • Telling tales about others • Delaying being on task • Coming into class inappropriately • Taking things without permission • Throwing/ flicking items • Shouting/ singing inappropriately • Deliberately annoying others • Not finishing work, despite support and encouragement • Disrespecting adults • Answering back • Leaving the classroom without permission 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verbal warning • Children then moved to Yellow • Confiscation of offending items • Reminded of expectations • Reinforce appreciate behaviour – “Well done for making the right choice, let’s get back to white!” • Catch them being good – however small the step in the right direction might be
Orange Card	Repeated yellow behaviour	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Moved to orange on the behaviour ladder • Change of Seat • Reminded of expectations • Complete behaviour log (5 times on orange in a half term will involve contacting parents) • 5 mins missed play • Reinforce appreciate behaviour – “Well done for making the right choice, let’s get back to white!” • Catch them being good – however small the step in the right direction might be
Red Card	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reported swearing • Physical Attack on another pupil or adult • Damage to property 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Moved to red on the behaviour ladder • Miss 15 minutes of lunchtime (if AM red) or 15 mins of break the following day (if PM red) • Red card sent home • Call for SLT if required If a child moves straight to red, all of the above applies and: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Call for SLT • Parents Contacted • Possible fixed term exclusion • If three red cards in half a term, behaviour card between home and school will be used

NB: this is not a complete list and there may be other incidents that are not covered here. However, we must ensure that we are consistent between staff and classes at all times.