

Radicalisation and Extremism Risk Assessment

School: Woolden Hill Primary School

	Yes/No	Evidence
Does the school have a policy?	Yes	Shared on school website
Does the school work with outside agencies on radicalisation and extremism e.g. Channel?	Yes	Local Police
Have staff received appropriate training?	Yes	Safeguarding training from Trust Prevent training on Flick - annually
Has the school got a trained Prevent lead?	Yes	Candi Norman
Do staff know who to discuss concerns with? (DSL)	Yes	Information about DSL and DDSLs displayed in school. Information shared in Safeguarding training.
Is suitable filtering of the internet in place?	Yes	SENSO software installed and checked daily by IT technicians
Do children know who to talk to about their concerns?	Yes	Information shared by CT in PSHE and Protective behaviour lessons. Worry boxes in place in classes and near ELSA room.
Are there opportunities for children to learn about radicalisation and extremism?	Yes	During PSHE lessons
Have any cases been reported?	No	NA none reported
Are individual pupils risk assessed?	Yes	If required
What factors make the school community potentially vulnerable to being radicalised? (e.g. EDL local base, extreme religious views promoted locally, tensions between local communities, promotion of radical websites by some pupils/parents)		The community is vulnerable to the EDL and other far right groups.
Comment on the school's community, locality and relevant history: The school is a predominantly white area with a very small group of non white community members. During the previous national elections, the Brexit party were quite popular and some local residents displayed posters supporting this party.
Risk evaluation	Low Medium High	Way Forward Work with local community, local police and other groups and remain updated.

Date completed: 21.09.23

Signed: Cnorman